Fine Entertainment Tomorrow Night

"Through The Attic Door," the Palo Alto Children's Theater Workshop play, which delighted a large audience last Saturday afternoon at the Palo Alto Civic Theater will give a repeat performance tomorrow (Saturday) evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Menlo Park Grammar School auditorium, on the highway.

The story is woven around the contents of an old chest in the attic of the home of the author's grandmother. The doll used in the performance is over a century old and is the property of Mrs. Berry.

Bert Shelbourn Goes To Modesto

Bert Shelbourn, local boy has accepted a position with the Modesto Theaters and left for this city last week to assume his new duties.

Young Shelbourn is well known in Menlo Park, where he secured his education, being an outstanding student in the local schools.

Since leaving school he has devoted his time to the study of art, and it is in this capacity that he has been employed in the valley city.

During the depression Bert worked in the CCC camps and kept up his study during spare hours. He was for several years a member of Menlo Park Troop, No. 107, Boy Scouts of America, under Scoutmaster L. E. Harris, and it is probably due to at least some extent to his Scout training that he owes his success. Bert was one of the finest and best members of the old Troop, according to former Scoutmaster Harris, who wishes him all the success in the world.

His mother, Mrs. W. A. Shelbourn is leaving Sunday for Modesto to be with her boy, and to act as a continued inspiration to him to attain even greater success.

BEER, HIGH, FERRELL WIN COUNTY OFFICES TUESDAY

At the election held last Tuesday Fred E. Beer, won a seat on the Board of Supervisor as did Walter High and Gilbert D. Ferrell defeated Edward Hoffmann for the District Attorney office.

There seemed to be more interest taken in the county election here than in the state contest for governor.

Menlo Park gave Governor Frank Merriam amajoriy of about 100 in the city, which was quite a surprise to some. The voting went off in a quiet manner, in fact one would hardly known that a bitter state contest was going on.

The bond issue for the "New County Office Building" failed to receive the required two-thirds and was lost the vote standing, Yes, 15,413, No 12,060.

Mrs. Nelle Fletcher of te Mhenlo Specialty Shoppe, is displaying an exceptional line of women's ready-to-wear and hats at this time and the prices are right.

Vandals Visit Holy Cross Cemetery

At some time last week the tomb of the John T. Doyle family in Holy Cross Cemetery in Menlo Park was broken into, the lids of two caskets contained therein were ripped to pieces and two skulls taken, according to Police reports.

The heavy marble slab that covered the vault had beet pried back from the door, most likely with crowbars and the door broken open.

The skulls were taken from the caskets in which rested the bodies of Doyle, who died about 30 years ago and a daughter, Frances. Metal handles on six steel caskets in the vault were broken off, but the caskets were not opened.

Discovery of the crime was made by John Schmidt and Henry Woener of this city when they visited the cemetery for the purpose of placing flowers on graves of relatives. Father Thomas McKeon, Postor of the Church of the Nativity of this city was at once notified and an invistigation was made by Police Officer Foster Andrews of the local department.

A cigarette stub was the only clue left by the vandals. It has not yet been determined as to the motive for this crime, some advancing the theory that it was a Hallowe'en prank.

The local public are hoping that those who participated in the crime, believing that matters have gone to far by a long way. Not a great while ago the angels decorating some of the tomb stones in this same resting place for the dead, were broken off their standards and taken away.

Besides the body of Doyle, who was one of the most widely known attorneys in California and who was also a wealthy property owner, and his daughter, the vault contained the bodies of Doyle's wife, his mother-in-law, Madam Emily Pons, who was a member of the French nobility, two other daughters, Mrs. Emily Pope and Miss Marie Doyle, and two sons, Daniel Hewitt Doyle and Sherman Doyle.

The vault has been sealed up again by John E. Layng of the Layng and Tinney Funeral Home of Redwood City.

LEGION AUXILIARY PAST PRESIDENTS ENTERTAIN

On Monday evening last the past presidents of Menlo Park American Legion Auxiliary, No. 443, gave a very nice party to the Auxiliary members, and the American Legion members and their families.

Refreshments were in the form of steaming hot coffee, hot vienna rolls and hot dogs, and did they go over particularly at this season of the year, and also bottled beer for those that liked it.

The guests played cards, and had a hilarious time playing blottoes, there were many good specimens, and it was decided to send them in to the Blottoe contest, and a hope was expressed that a prize would be forthcoming.

Unfortunately the District Meeting of the Auxiliary was held on the same night, so some of the members were rather disappointed in not being able to be at the party which was held at the new Social Hall of the Auxiliary on Doyle street in this city.

F. N. Harris of San Jose has been employed in the mechanical department of the Recorder office this week.

Display U. S. Flag Sunday and Monday

Members of the Menlo Park Post, American Legion, in memory of the Great World War in which its members served, and in order to remind residents of Menlo Park of the necessity for patriotism today as in times gone by request that All business houses, and all other residents of Menlo Park display the flag of the United States of America on Armistice Day, Sunday, November 11th and on the day following.

Thomas White states that he still has two flags and necessary pole and halards which can be purchased very reasonable, and asks that any one interested see him at once.

The local Legion Post is also sponsoring the production of two shows at the New Menlo Theater this evening at 6:30 and 9 o'clock tonight.

The feature picture is an uncensored war picture taken in the fighting zone in France by the various armies engaged, and is educational in the extreme. That Gen. Sherman was right when he said, "War is hell," is proved beyond any question by this picture.

In addition the "Forgotten Men", the feature picture, there will be a numbr of others which will include: "Elmer Steps Out," "Music In The Air," "Exposure" and the Latest News Reel.

There will be no change in the price of admission for these two performances and the public is urged to see the picture.

Remember to show the flag on Sunday and Monday, our of respect to the boys who died in the World War, all preceding wars and to those who still live, and have a determination t hat this great country shall remain free.

CRACKED GASOLINE SEEMS IN GREAT DEMAND HERE

According to reports from the Double Check Super Service station the new Rio Grande "Cracked" gasoline which has recently been added to the line of high grade motor fuel handled at that station is in large demand here. Mr. Morgan states that on one occasion he pumped his tanks dry, and that he has to watch them closely now as more and more motorists find out the excelent results obtained from Rio Grande gasoline.

Morgan suggests that the motorists of this city give it a trial.

The Menlo Book Shop, a new business house in this city, is preparing to opens its doors in the Derry store next to the post office. The place has been renovated and a fine line of high class books put in.

Secondo Barbero Killed At Crossin

Secondo Barbero, 44 years old, o Menlo Park was instantly kille about 9 o'clock Sunday mornin when the truck which he was driving was hit by a Southern Pacifi train at the Encinal crossing a the northern entrance to Menl Park.

According to reports, Barbero who was employed by the Redwood City Garbage Company, drove his scavenger truck onto the track directly in front of the oncoming train. He was thrown from the truck which was voilently hurled from the tracks.

Barbero was only a short distance from his home on Encinal avenue when the accident happened. About two years ago Barbero had a similar accident at the same point but was unhurt.

Bargero had lived in the United States for the past 24 years. Four years ago he came from Palo Alto to this city to make his home.

Arthur Bullard is the engineer and A. E. Duncan the fireman of the train, which makes the run from San Francisco to Santa Cruz.

The crossing at Encinal avenue is an unusually dangerous one as it is practically imposible to see in either direction along the track. Some time ago the City Council, realizing the danger, requested the Southern Pacific Company to place a wig wag signal there but the railroad people could not see the necessity of going to the small expense to save the lives of those who are killed through this lack of a little equipment. At the present time all there is at this crossing as a warning it a crossed board calling attention to the fact that the rail sare there.

Another source of danger at this point is the fact that the trans have not begun to slow down for the station at Menlo Park, going south, or for Atherton, going north. and are therefore going at a very high rate of speed.

Public opinion expressed here today is to the effect that something must be done about the matter.

LOCAL WOMEN ATTEND DISTRICT LEGION AUXILIARY MEETING MONDAY

He also talked of the new hospital at Fort Miley which will hold open house on Sunday, November 11th, and the public is invited to attend and inspect this fine new institution.

The meeting was attended by President Isabelle Lindquist; First Vice President Clarissa Ross and Secretary Elizabeth Lyon of Menlo Park.

San Francisco Looks to the Future

The O'Shaughnessy Dam, a major part of the Bay city's Hetch Hetchy water system. This $7,000,000 structure holds enough water to last San Francisco's present population for three and a half years. Soon a PWA project involving $3,500,000 will raise the dam to its ultimate height of 430 feet. Then it will hold water enough to supply 4,000,000 people, three times the number living in San Francisco today.

Is the NRA new, experimental, or radical? This question was answered last week by Dr. Gordon L. Wood, associate professor of economics from the University of Melbourne, when he arrived in Los Angeles from Australia. He stated that Australia has been using the NRA since 1903. There the scheme is called the basic wage program and is a permanent part of the government.

The greatest advertisement for California's climate is the 46,715 transients registered in the state for relief. This number exceeds that of any other state, according to the federal transient service. Three-fourths of this total are unmarried men and boys who are given employment in the various work camps established for this purpose. The federal government has taken over the care of indigents from the state.

Don't forget to display the U. S. Flag on Sunday and Monday It will make members of the American Legion and other ex-service men realize that their sacrifice is appreciated.

CANNED AND FRESH

THE end of the fresh vegetable season is approaching, but here is a stunt which many wise housewives are using to prolong it as long as possible. They take such canned vegetables as asparagus, beets, carrots, corn, kidney beans, lima beans, mushrooms, peas, sauerkraut, spinach, stringless beans and tomatoes and combine them with the remaining fresh beets, cabbage, carrots, cauliflower, celery, cucumbers, eggplant, lima beans, mushrooms, onions, potatoes, radishes, spinach, squash, sweet potatoes, tomatoes and turnips which they are able to obtain, and make tasty dishes.

How is this done? There's an art in it, of which a few samples will suffice to give the idea. Take the first canned vegetable, asparagus, for instance. Could you ask for anything better to eat than the following

Asparagus Combinations

Fresh Tomatoes Stuffed with Asparagus: Cut the stem ends from four firm uniform tomatoes, and scoop out the centers. Dust inside with salt and pepper. Stand two asparagus tips from a 10½-ounce can upright in each tomato, cutting off the ends so that they protrude only about half an inch. Mix the cut pieces of asparagus with the tomato pulp, and add enough buttered crumbs to make the mixture of the right consistency to stuff. Stuff this around the asparagus tips in the tomatoes, and bake in a slow—325 degree—oven for from twenty to thirty minutes. Serves four.

Fresh Mushroom and Asparagus Roast: Peel six very large mushrooms, remove stems and place, cavity side up, in a shallow pan. Put a piece of butter in each, and dust with salt and pepper. Lay two asparagus tips from a 10½-ounce can across each mushroom, and sprinkle thickly with grated cheese. Dust with paprika, and place in a hot oven for about fifteen minutes. Serve with steak or on rounds of toast as an entree. Serves six.

Corn Concoctions

Scalloped Corn, Fresh Celery and Olives: Boil one cup of diced celery five minutes, and drain. Put alternate layers of whole kernel corn from a 10½-ounce can, celery and one-fourth cup chopped ripe olives in a baking dish, sprinkling with one-fourth teaspoon salt and a few grains of pepper. Dot top with two tablespoons butter, pour over two-thirds cup milk, and cover with one-half cup buttered crumbs. Bake for about forty-five minutes in a 375 degree oven, or until the celery is tender. Serves six.

Succotash: Melt two tablespoons butter, and saute three tablespoons chopped green pepper and one tablespoon chopped onion in it for three minutes. Add the contents of a No. 2 can of cream style corn and one pound of new lima beans which have been shelled and simmered in boiling water until tender. (This makes one and a third cups, shelled.) Season to taste, and add two tablespoons cream. Serves six

Parsnip Plate: Peel three medium parsnips, cut in one-fourth inch slices lengthwise, and boil until tender in salted water. Drain. Cut one medium bunch celery in two inch pieces, and also boil and drain. Lay parsnips flat in a shallow buttered baking dish or glass pie plate. Lay celery on top, sprinkle with salt and pepper, and dot with butter. Heat the contents of a No. 2 can of tomatoes, season with salt, pepper and a tiny bit of sugar, and pour over. Bake in a 350 degree oven for about thirty minutes or until brown. Serves six.

Stewed Tomatoes and Fresh Squash: Pare one summer squash (yellow crooked neck) thinly, and cut in small pieces. Put the contents of a No. 2 can of tomatoes and the squash in a stew pan, and season with salt and pepper. Cover and boil gently until squash is tender. Mash with a fork. Add butter to season, and serve. Serves six.

Make Your Own Combinations

Then go on from there, and make your own combinations—canned kidney beans with fresh tomatoes, for instance, canned corn or carrots with sweet potatoes, canned peas with cucumbers and radishes or canned stringless beans with carrots and green pepper.

The combinations offer a wide range of choice, and you'll find it fun to make your family and guests guess which are the fresh vegetables in them and which are canned. You'll also find that they will frequently guess wrong.

Mapping California's National Forests

Fifty men are employed daily on this SERA project to make relief maps of all of the state's national forest territories. Piecing together topographic maps and giving the relief maps a life-like appearance is the work of expert map-makers and artists who are employed on the project. The maps will give the public a graphic picture of California's forests at a moment's glance.

CALIFORNIA WINE DEMANDS INCREASING ACCORDING TO BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

Sacramento — (WNU) — According to the state board of equalization, California wine demands are on the increase. Sales of vintages subject to the state tax of two cents per gallon for September amounted to 1,216,050 gallons, which is an increase of 126,694 gallons over similar sales for August.

Much significance is attached to the fact that while California sales were increasing, imported wine sales decreased over the same period. State wine sales increased 11.6 per cent, wine import decreasing 24.2 per cent.

As was expected, beer sales have dropped somewhat since the end of summer. The drop is not more than might normally be expected, however, since beer is a seasonal beverage. Beer is still responsible for the bulk of the yield from the California beverage tax, which does not apply to hard liquors.

NEW PLAN OF TEACHER EMPLOYMENT URGED BY EDUCATOR

Coronado—(WNU)—William I. Nida, San Diego State Teachers' College faculty member, has advanced the idea which startled educators here at the 34th annual conference of California city, county and district school superintendents.

The idea is that high school pupils should choose their own teachers and school boards should dismiss all teachers that are not chosen by the pupils. The proposition dropped like a bombshell on the 600 delegates and dissent was so rife that further business was at a standstill during the closing days of the convention.

Ironic Spinach

THERE'S plenty of iron i spinach, and it is good fo children, but the irony of i is that children generally don like foods that are "good fo them." So after all the labor o washing the spinach — and it i real labor — and of cooking it — which isn't the best of indoo sports during these hot days— comes the agony of hearing you child say: "I won't eat my spin ach!"

There are several ways to get around these difficulties. The first is to buy your spinach in cans. This is a much better product than you can buy in any city market, and it eliminates the labor of washing it and shortens to a minimum the time of heating it. The second is not to tell your child that it is good for him, but to prepare it in such ways that he will be amused and interested and willing to eat it. Here are a couple.

Intriguing Spinach Dishes

Mountain Peaks: Make piles of hot fluffy mashed potatoes as high and jagged on top as possible, to represent snow on peaks. Around the bottom pile hot buttered canned spinach to look like the trees below the snow line. Serve with crisp bacon curls, and watch the mountains disappear!

Spinach and Beet Mold: Season the drained contents of a can of spinach well with butter, salt and pepper, and pack while hot into a buttered ring mold. Keep hot while preparing beets. Heat canned beets, drain, chop and season well with butter, salt and pepper. Turn spinach mold out onto a hot round platter, and fill center with beets. Then sprinkle chopped, hard-cooked eggs over the spinach ring to give it a festive appearance, and see what your children do to that!*

FRED E. BEER THANKS VOTERS FOR SUPPORT

An expression to thanks to the thousands who insured my election as Supervisor from District Number Two does not fully convey my feeling. I feel you accepted my oft-repeated promise to reprsnt your interests in an honest, faithful, intelligent, and business-like manner and I am proud to know you accepted these promises with all the sincerity I intended.

This is my purpose, and I ask the co-operation and assistance of every good citizen to help me in eliminating from public office indifference, extravagance, and favoritism, and to rear in its stead the banner emblazoned with the motto that, "A public office is a public trust."

Better Breakfasts

"COFFEE and toast and an editorial," may be all the breakfast that a dilettante needs. But those of us who have to dig instead of "dilettant" (or whatever the verb is that means to piffle around without undertaking serious work) need some substantial food to start the day with. We need fruit for breakfast, too, and some milk or cream in addition to the small amount that we put in our coffee. Here's a breakfast that meets all these requirements:

Fresh Raspberries and Cold Cereal with Cream
Chipped Beef Omelet
Toasted Holland Rusks
Coffee

Chipped Beef Omelet: Make a French omelet by beating four eggs slightly and adding half a teaspoon salt, a few grains pepper and four tablespoons milk. Melt a small amount of butter in a hot skillet, and shake around until the pan is well greased. Pour in the egg mixture and cook slowly, lifting the mixture with a spatula as it cooks to allow the uncooked portion to run onto the pan. Have ready a white sauce made of one tablespoon butter, one tablespoon flour and three-fourths cup evaporated milk. Add two-thirds cup chipped beef torn into small pieces. Spread this hot mixture onto the omelet, roll up or fold over, and turn onto a hot platter. Serves four.

One more thing to be careful about is your coffee. Be sure to use one of the vacuum packed brands because they are the only ones that keep the coffee fresh. Then you'll have a breakfast that will make you want to work.*

Governor Merriam Plans Work For Unemployed

Sacramento—(WNU)— Acting Governor Frank F. Merriam tells of a plan, already in progress, whereby work for the largest possible number of citizens for the next three years, is made possible.

Construction of new highways in the state without taxing the public an additional penny, is being undertaken by the California Highway Commission, which has obtained Federal funds for this purpose under the Hayden, Cartwright bill, passed at last Congress. At present the Federal Aid highway system includes new roads in Fresno, Plumas, Shasta, Santa Barbara and Los Angeles counties.

NATIONAL PARKS INCREASE GREATLY IN POPULARITY

Washington—(WNU) — Popularity of national parks all over the nation showed an increase last summer, United States government figures show. Again California's Yosemite National Park led all others in popularity, 365,392 people having visited the park during the season. This fugure is about a fifth of the total visiting all the national parks and monuments in the country.

ASSESSED VALUES IN CALIFORNIA ARE LOW

Sacramento—(WNU) — Assessed valuations in California in 1934 dropped considerably below the comparative figures of a decade ago, State Controller Ray L. Riley points out. He says the present value of California property is $5,292,974,608, which is $226,800,701 less than in 1924. In 1929 the assessed valuation passed the seven billion mark.

Don't forget the American Legion picture show this evening at the New Menlo Theater.

1. When does ½ Off begin to apply?
With the bill for electricity used after the December, 1934, meter reading.

2. Who gets it?
All domestic and commercial lighting customers who have been customers at the same location of last year.

3. How do I benefit?
Perhaps you have been using electricity sparingly. Now you can use TWO DOLLARS more of electricity each month than last year and it will only cost ONE DOLLAR.

4. Must I add new appliances?
NO. However, each new electric appliance you install that would normally take EXTRA Electricity at full rate can now operate at half cost.

5. How do I apply?
No action on your part is necessary. The rate automatically applies to all who qualify.

One-half Off means this: That the amount of money by which your bill for any one month at same location exceeds your bill for the corresponding month a year back will be discounted 50%.

6. How does the rate work?
Your monthly bill will show that the normal cost for any electricity used in any month in excess of amount used in corresponding month of previous year has been cut in half.

7. Can you give an example?
Say your bill in January, 1934, was $3.00. You install an electric refrigerator, an electric heater and a new lamp. Your January, 1935, bill is $6.00. You have EXTRA Electricity to the amount of $3.00. You get a ½ Off discount of $1.50. The bill you pay in January, 1935, will therefore be only $4.50.

8. Does electric equipment installed through a Federal Housing Act loan give me this bargain rate?
Yes. This rate also applies to the use of additional equipment you install. This should be an extra inducement to you for obtaining a F. H. A loan. See any banker.

9. How long will ½ Off be in effect?
Throughout our system for 12 months ending with the meter reading ending December, 1935.

10. Why was this ½ Off rate made?
To see if a bargain rate would cause a more liberal use of electricity, and take up part of the large power surplus in Northern California.

IMPORTANT!
It is hoped and expected by this company that this ½ Off rate will so stimulate use of electricity as to justify a reduction in the regular schedule.
